Hand Over the Keys

A delegation seminar. Eight steps, ninety minutes, up to three hundred people

AUDIENCE	FORMAT	DURATION	GROUP SIZE	PREREQUISITE
Managers at any level	Seminar, virtual	Ninety minutes	Up to 300 participants	None.

WHAT IT IS

The DELEGATE framework delivered as a single seminar: define the win, establish the way, list the guardrails, expect the process, give the right support, agree on checkpoints, transfer ownership, encourage growth. Built for scale without becoming a webinar nobody acts on.

WHAT HAPPENS

- The eight steps are worked through in sequence, each with a live example.
- Participants apply the sequence to a delegation they are currently avoiding.
- Common failure points are named, including the ones that look like trust problems and are not.

WHAT YOU LEAVE WITH

- A usable sequence for the next handoff, not a theory of delegation.
- One specific piece of work identified to transfer, with its guardrails written.

BEST FOR

Organisations where delegation is the bottleneck and the manager population is too large for a workshop.
