Building the Bench

The people who could step into a chair or dean role next

AUDIENCE	FORMAT	DURATION	GROUP SIZE	PREREQUISITE
Emerging school leaders	Cohort, in person or hybrid	A year	Five to ten participants	None.

WHAT IT IS

A year-long cohort for the faculty and staff who could take a team lead, chair or dean role next, built before the vacancy rather than after it.

WHAT HAPPENS

- Participants are drawn from across divisions and departments.
- The CLUTCH frameworks are worked against the school's own conditions.
- The cohort runs in person or hybrid across the academic year.

WHAT YOU LEAVE WITH

- A named internal bench for the roles that will open.
- Cross-divisional relationships that the schedule does not otherwise create.

BEST FOR

Schools that keep hiring externally for roles they could have filled internally.

SCOPE AND RATE
