Strengths-Based Advisory Design

Built for the fifteen-minute conversation an advisor actually has on a Tuesday

AUDIENCE	FORMAT	DURATION	GROUP SIZE	PREREQUISITE
Advisors and advisory programmes	Design and training	Scoped per engagement	An advisory programme	None.

WHAT IT IS

The one item in the catalogue that is not about leadership, and the one nobody else offers. An advisory programme designed around the OWN framework and strengths, then trained into the advisors who will run it. Advisors deliver it. The design and the training are the service.

WHAT HAPPENS

- The advisory programme is designed around OWN and strengths.
- Materials are built for the real constraint: fifteen minutes, mid-week, with a student who did not ask to be there.
- Advisors are trained to deliver it themselves.

WHAT YOU LEAVE WITH

- An advisory programme the school owns and runs.
- Advisors trained to deliver it without an outside facilitator.

BEST FOR

Schools whose advisory programme exists on the schedule but not in practice.
